

Regional Trainings: Developing Partnerships within your School Community

The Oregon School-Based Health Care Network is excited to announce a low cost training to support schools and school-based health centers (SBHCs) in developing strong partnerships. In conjunction with Linfield College's Department of Health, Human Performance and Athletics (<http://www.linfield.edu/hhpa/>), this training will be held at Linfield College, led by Jessica Bogli, education consultant, and Jennifer Melo, Program Director for the Network.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

Schools with a certified SBHC or SBHC planning grant site are invited to attend with a diverse team of 3 – 5 members from throughout the school community. Possible team members include SBHC staff or planning committee, principals/vice-principals, other school administrators, teachers, school counselors, school nurses, social workers or advocates, coaches, ESD staff, parents.

LOGISTICS

- March 10th, 8am - 3:30pm
- Linfield College, McMinnville –Melrose Hall, Jonasson Room
- Lunch and snacks provided.
- $15 /person

OBJECTIVES

By the end of the training, participants will:

- Understand the key intersections between SBHCs and schools and how we can support each other
- Learn and practice skills around developing meaningful partnerships and how these partnerships benefit you
- Learn of tools, policies, resources and grant monies available to help support the work you do
- Develop an action plan for future partnership activities

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Funds are available to pay for 1 teacher substitute per school.

AGENDA

8:00- 10:00

Welcome/Introductions
Why partnerships make sense
What do we have in common?

10:00-11:30

What policies and mandates are required of SBHCs and schools and how can these be opportunities for partnership?
Visioning Activity

11:30-12:15

Lunch

12:15- 1:45

Building bridges between schools and SBHCs through strategic communication

1:45- 3:30

Team Action Planning
Materials, Resources, Grants
Closure

Evaluation Comments

- Presentation was well-organized; presentations well-read and easy to follow; considerate of group dynamics. Pleasant, well versed in your workshop content.
- Glad to share my day with you; thanks for your skill and expertise
- Presentation was interesting; hands-on activities were helpful and left an impression on me. So much info and very helpful; gives our team a foundation; loved it!
- Team time was fantastic; time we had as a group was invaluable
- Great job. This has been one of the best organized and presented programs I've attended.
- Organized. Well-facilitated. Appreciate the willingness to work with the variety of backgrounds that we bring to the session.
- Fun, informative. You are both approachable. Will not hesitate to call.

Questions? Contact Jennifer Melo at jennifer@osbhcn.org